Functional Requirements
Requirement	Description
FR1	The system recognizes the user's hands position
FR2	The system identifies the positions that represent letters in mexican sign language
FR3	The system writes a text containing the transcription of the user's signs
FR4	The system has visual indicators to let the user know its current state (such as "Ready for capture", "Transcribing", etc)
FR5	The system is capable of training new sign language recognition models.
FR6	The system has the ability to use different Sign Language Recognition Models previously trained to be used in this system.